Dec. 01, 2009, 7:01 a.m. CT

With the gift-giving season upon us, you may be wondering what to get that special kid in your life. 'Metroplex Moms' Barbara Arnoldin and Tina Wusk stopped by the CBS 11 News studios to show off some terrific toys.

"In this morning's Baby Buzz, the gift giving season is upon us, and you may be wondering what to get that special little someone in your life. Barbara and Tina, the founders of MetroMoms Events are here."

"We love toys, and what we like about most of the toys we've picked out here is that very few require batteries."

"We love CitiBlocs, also for building. You can build some serious structures with CitiBlocs. These are all-natural, we love that."

"Is that like the Legos of today? Or Lincoln Logs?"
 "Yes, it's they're the building blocks of today."
