Citiblocs

$15+up; CitiBlocs.com

Ages 3 and up

Recently when visiting the Science Museum Oklahoma, I lost an hour of time in the Tinkering Garage area playing with these thin wooden blocks. Made from renewable pine, the blocks use gravity and imagination to create. Each package comes with an idea book, showing a photo of a real item (such as a street of old-fashioned European buildings) and then shows projects inspired by the photo, including number of blocks used (in this case, anywhere from 50-200). Low-tech addictive fun for all ages.
